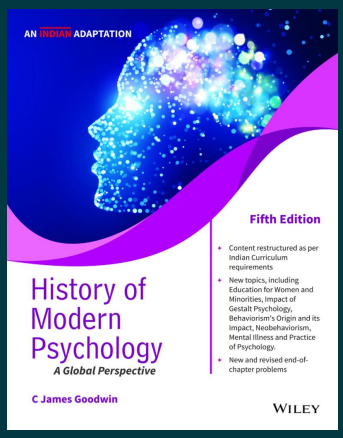
WILEY



History of Modern Psychology, 5ed: A Global Perspective, An Indian Adaptation

By C James Goodwin

Paperback 9789354242267 ₹1,650.00

Pages: 588

Description

This International Adaptation offers many new topics, including the Philosophical Perspective of Psychology in Other Parts of the World, Scientific Approaches Outside the US, and Relevance of Wundt's Contributions Outside the Western World. Other new topics covered are Global Acceptability of Darwin's Principles and their Impact on Psychological Thinking, Global Industrial Psychologists, Gestalt Psychology and its Global Impact, and Global Importance of Psychology as a Subject.

About the Author

C James Goodwin

C. James Goodwin is an emeritus professor at Wheeling Jesuit University

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCING PSYCHOLOGY’S HISTORY

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- Why Take This Course?
- Key Issues in Psychology’s History
- Close-Up: Edwin G. Boring (1886–1968)
- Historiography: Doing and Writing History

CHAPTER 2 THE PHILOSOPHICAL CONTEXT

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- A Long Past
- René Descartes (1596–1650): The Beginnings of Modern Philosophy and Science
- The British Empiricist Argument and the Associationists
- Close-Up: Raising a Philosopher
- Rationalist Responses to Empiricism
- Philosophical Perspective of Psychology in Other Parts of the World
- In Perspective: Philosophical Foundations

CHAPTER 3 THE SCIENTIFIC CONTEXT

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- Heroic Science in the Age of Enlightenment
- Functioning of the Nervous System

- Localization of Brain Function
- Close-Up: The Marketing of Phrenology
- Nervous System Structure
- Scientific Approaches Outside the US
- In Perspective: The Nervous System and Behavior

CHAPTER 4 WUNDT AND GERMAN PSYCHOLOGY

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- An Education in Germany
- On the Threshold of Experimental Psychology: Psychophysics
- Wundt Establishes a New Psychology at Leipzig
- Close-Up: An American in Leipzig
- The New Psychology Spreads
- Relevance of Wundt's Contributions Outside the Western World
- In Perspective: A New Science

CHAPTER 5 DARWIN'S CENTURY: EVOLUTIONARY THINKING

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- The Species Problem
- Charles Darwin (1809–1882) and the Theory of Evolution
- The Origins of Comparative Psychology
- Close-Up: Douglas Spalding and the Experimental Study of Instinct
- Studying Individual Differences
- Global Acceptability of Darwin's Principles and Their Impact on Psychological Thinking
- In Perspective: Darwin's Century

CHAPTER 6 AMERICAN PIONEERS

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- Psychology in 19th-Century America
- The Modern University
- William James (1842–1910): The First of the "New" Psychologists in America
- G. Stanley Hall (1844–1924): Professionalizing the New Psychology
- Close-Up: Creating Maze Learning
- Mary Whiton Calkins (1863–1930): Challenging the Male Monopoly
- Other American Women Pioneers: Untold Lives
- Other Pioneers: Ladd and Baldwin
- In Perspective: The New Psychology at the Millennium

CHAPTER 7 CLASSICAL ORIENTATION OF STRUCTURALISM AND FUNCTIONALISM

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- Introduction
- Titchener's Psychology: Structuralism
- Close-Up: The Introspective Habit
- America's Psychology: Functionalism
- The Desire for Application
- The Mental Testing Movement
- Close-Up: Leta Hollingworth: Advocating for Gifted Children and Debunking Myths about Women

- Applying Psychology to Business
- Global Industrial Psychologists
- Global Status of Applied Psychology
- In Perspective: How Structuralism and Functionalism have Impacted the Study of Psychology

CHAPTER 8 GESTALT PSYCHOLOGY

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- The Origins and Early Development of Gestalt Psychology
- Close-Up: A Case of Espionage?
- Gestalt Psychology and Perception
- The Gestalt Approach to Cognition and Learning
- Kurt Lewin (1890–1947): Expanding the Gestalt Vision
- In Perspective: Impact of Gestalt Psychology

CHAPTER 9 SITUATING BEHAVIORISM IN THE HISTORY OF PSYCHOLOGY

- Preview and Chapter Objectives
- Introduction
- Behaviorism’s Antecedents
- Pavlov’s Life and Work
- Close-Up: Misportraying Pavlov’s Apparatus: Its Implications for Collective Societies
- John B. Watson and the Founding of Behaviorism
- Post-Watsonian Behaviorism
- Edwin R. Guthrie (1886–1959): Contiguity, Contiguity

To purchase this product, please visit:
https://www.wileyindia.com/history-of-modern-psychology-5ed-an-indian-adaptation-a-global-perspective.html

Scan to buy