CONTENTS

Figures and Tables
Fo	Foreword
1	Why Incumbents Fail	1
•	Why Incumbents Fail to Innovate Unrelentingly	3
	The Preeminence of Culture	7
	Culture as a Primary Explanation	15
	Basis for the Book	17
	Conclusion	19
	Conclusion	1)
2	Willingness to Cannibalize Successful Products	23
	Why Incumbents Are Reluctant to Cannibalize Products	24
	Why Willingness to Cannibalize Is Important	28
	Understanding Technological Evolution	33
	Blinded to an Opportunity: Microsoft Keywords?	39
	Crippled by Fear of Piracy: Sony MP3 Player	41
	Decline of an Innovator: Eastman Kodak	45
	A Cycle of Cannibalization: Gillette's Innovations
	in Wet Shaving	49
	Late Move: HP Tablet	53
	Conclusion	54

Contents

3	Embracing Risk	59
	Sources of Risk: Innovation's High Failure Rate	59
	The Reflection Effect: Asymmetry in Perceived Risk	63
	The Hot-Stove Effect: Learning from Failure	65
	The Expectations Effect: Hope Versus Reality	68
	Innovation's Gain-Loss Function: Type 1 and 2 Errors	69
	Case Histories	75
	Gambling on an Embryonic Market: Toyota's Prius	75
	Gambling on Growth: Amazon.com	84
	Gambling on Vision: Facebook	90
	Gambling on Scale: Federal Express	103
	Conclusion	106
4	Focusing on the Future	109
	Why Future Focus Is Tough	111
	Availability Bias	114
	Paradigmatic Bias	116
	Commitment Bias	119
	Planning for the Future	121
	Predicting and Managing Takeoff	122
	Targeting Future Mass Markets	126
	Predicting Technological Evolution	129
	Analyzing Emergent Consumers	134
	Conclusion	138
5	Incentives for Enterprise	141
	Traditional Incentives: Winning Loyalty	142
	Asymmetric Incentives: Turning Failure into Success	143
	Making Incentives Work: Economics and Psychology of Incentives	148
	Power of Incentives: IBM's Transformation	155

CONTENTS

	Incentives for Enterprise: Google	157
	Incentives for Loyalty: General Motors	163
	Incentives for Innovation: 3M	168
	Structuring Team Incentives: IBM's Learning
	from Online Gamers	171
	Conclusion	173
6	Fostering Internal Markets	177
	Characteristics of Markets	181
	Implementing Internal Markets	192
	Managing Internal Markets	199
	Conclusion	203
7	Empowering Innovation Champions	205
	Luck Versus Innovation Champions	206
	Characteristics of Champions	208
	Testing Luck	210
	Champions Versus Teams	212
	Champions at the Top Versus the Bottom	214
	Distributed Champions: Google's "Young Turks" Program	216
	Serial Champion: Roger Newton	218
	Championing Mass Market of the Future: Tata Nano	222
	Championing a Music Revolution: Apple iPod	227
	Mobilizing an Organization for Innovation: Sony Walkman	231
	Steps in Empowering Champions	235
	Conclusion	236
8	Culture Versus Alternate Theories: Arguments and Evidence	237
	Micro-Theories	238
	Macro-Theories	250
	Conclusion	260

Contents

Notes	263
Bibliography	289
Acknowledgments	307
The Author	309
Index	311